I hope that this finds all of you fine & in the best of spirits! These last few months have been very busy for me, but fulfilling. I am starting work right now on the next event for my World Head of Family Sokeship Council which will mark the 23rd Anniversary for my group which has the distinction of being America's first worldwide martial arts grandmasters/ masters organization. The event will take place September 4th & 5th of next year at the Doubletree Hilton Hotel in Omaha, Nebraska & is being hosted by my good friend, GM John Bryne. I would like to have all of my students worldwide who can make it to come to this event. We will be going over new techniques, weapons training, as well as "free form" empty hand weapons defense. Promotions will also be entertained for those that deserve them. We will also have hotel room discounts and more. So, please mark these dates on your calendars and you can write to me for more information!

September 6th found San-Jitsu represented at the SALON DE GALA in St. Petersburg, Florida where I did a seminar on San-Jitsu and also received an award for Founding my Art and the World Head of Family Sokeship Council. GM Sergio Barriga hosted this particular event.

September 27th- 28th, I was in Sacramento, California doing a seminar for Hanshi Bruce Juchnik’s “The Gathering”. A large martial arts seminar symposium conducted yearly by the “Martial Arts Collective Society”. Special thanks to Sensei Ray Kodani & his family for hosting me while I was down there.

CARLITO BONJOC JR. is a master Escrimador. He began his study in the Filipino arts as a young boy. He is looked upon in the arts as one of the top practitioners today and is respected and loved by all that he has come in contact with. His incredible skill and wonderful disposition are impressive.

JERRY PIDDINGTON competed on the national and international karate circuit in the late 60's and early 70's when the competition consisted of some of the legends of American Karate. Mr. Piddington won many sparring titles competing against some of the top competitors in the country.

CHARLES GARRETT is a well known practitioner of Matsumura Shorin Ryu under the late Hohansoken and has been actively teaching this art since 1974. Currently Shihan Garrett is operating Hohansoken's Self Defense Will Travel which he founded in 1997.

FRANK SANCHEZ is recognized as the founder of San-Jitsu, the first internationally recognized martial art system from Guam. Currently residing in Florida, Grandmaster Sanchez is the founder of the World Head of Family Sokeship Council.

Well, this concludes this newsletter.....Before we end though, I'd like to extend special get well wishes to student, Michael Pinkney who is in the hospital after suffering a stroke. May your recovery be quick and complete, my friend.

Remember students.....the secret to becoming good at anything is hard practice combined with good nutrition & rest....Until next time, "take care"!
